

LORRIN ANDREWS WILL BE ABSENT ELECTION TIME

Candidate for Legislature Goes to Mainland on Legal and Other Business

On several missions which will keep him busy until December 5, when he expects to return, Attorney Lorrin Andrews left in the Matsonia for the mainland.

In the United States circuit court of appeals on October 25 Andrews will represent Mrs. Boyd and others in their claim for the Oregon block here.

As a Honolulu delegate from the A. U. the attorney will attend the annual convention in New York City, November 30.

Possibly the most important mission, however, which takes him to the mainland is a call from California Japanese to speak at several meetings which are being arranged for that purpose.

Andrews is considered a true friend of the Japanese in Hawaii and at a meeting of the Japanese-American Citizens' Club held last night in his office he was selected to represent the Japanese in the states and to "put before the people of the mainland the position, standing and ideas of the Japanese-American citizens of Oahu."

As the Republican candidate for membership in the house of representatives from the fourth district, Andrews will not be here for the election, but expects to win, nevertheless. Resolutions signed by Arthur K. Ozawa, president, and S. F. Kenn, secretary of the Japanese-American Citizens' Association of Oahu, which were given to Andrews to carry to the mainland Japanese were in part as follows:

"Whereas, Mr. Lorrin Andrews is a friend, adviser and a staunch supporter in the movements of the Japanese-American Citizens' Association of Oahu recently organized; and

"Whereas, he is about to leave for the mainland of the United States; therefore be it

"Resolved, that the members of this association express their heartfelt thanks to their friend, adviser and supporter.

NO SETTLEMENT OF KALAKAUA AVE. MUDDLE REACHED

Tone of Rapid Transit Company's Letter Does Not Suit; One New Complication

The situation as to the relocation of the Rapid Transit tracks on Kalakaua avenue has changed somewhat as a result of the meeting of the board of supervisors Tuesday night.

In the first place, the tone of the Rapid Transit Company's letter, answering the board's request that the company relocate its tracks, was slightly belligerent and entirely different from what was expected by the board. It is also the general opinion of members of the board now that Crispy is right in his stand, although they will probably offer it possible the $4000 as half of the expenses for laying temporary tracks in order to avoid all delays in the completion of Kalakaua avenue paving.

Supervisor Larsen emphasized this by saying, "What the board wants is a road, and I believe if the public feeling is strong enough we should go ahead regardless of legal technicalities. It is the public that makes the laws and it is up to the board to abide by its desires."

New Complication Arises
There is also another complication which may arise from the absence of Hatch, who left today for the coast. It takes the vote of five members of the board to pass a resolution appropriating $4000 and with Hatch gone and with Horner, Ahia and Mayor Lane voting against it, it may be impossible for the board to appropriate the money. It is hoped by every member, however, that the rails will be here by the time the makai side is finished, which will not be for about five or six months.

THAYER WILL LEAVE FOR HAWAII TOWARD FIRST OF DECEMBER

Wade Warren Thayer, secretary of the territory, will leave for Hawaii about December 1 to take evidence in connection with the issuance of birth certificates to Hawaiian-born children on the Big Island whose parents have applied for such papers.

Thayer says that the itinerary of his trip will include many towns on the island, but that his three chief stopping points will be Hilo, Honokaa and Kealahou.

As soon as the election is over in November, Eben Cushingham, chief clerk in Thayer's office, will leave on the first vacation he has taken in nearly two years. He plans to spend the week between November 19 and 26 with brother guardsmen in the camp at Red Hill.

Sound Advice Given

The 16th precinct club assured W. C. Achi that it hadn't forgotten him, although he did not receive the nomination. In response he gave some sound argument in favor of the straight Republican ticket. He pointed out that the Republicans controlled the upper house, and after election there will be added Hind and Kamaooha from Hawaii, Harry Baldwin from Maui, with Cooke's chances very good, and one from Kauai. In the lower house he pointed out that Hawaii will send eight Republicans, Maui six, Kauai four and the 4th district six, making 24 sure Republican members.

"If the 5th district should send Democrats to the house or Oahu should send Democrats to the senate, then we would have nobody to blame but ourselves for lack of results," he said. He urged a straight Republican delegation for the house so that Oahu with 12 members may be in a better position to receive their portion from the Republican family of 30.

His argument on the frontage tax issue was an eye-opener to the Hawaiian voters, who, no doubt, went away with a clearer idea of this law than they ever had before. He scored the Democrats who were denouncing the law as being "hypocrites, trying to ride to success on misrepresentations." He pointed out that Wirtz, Coke and Laukea, all Democrats, had voted for the law in the senate.

Talks On Frontage Tax
Achi pointed out that it was up to an improvement district to vote yes or no on the question of putting a district under the frontage tax law; that the poor people were protected anyway if they thought they did not want their roads fixed under this law.

"The millionaires in Manoa have decided to build their roads under the frontage tax system," he declared. "That is all right. It is their money that they wish to spend. They will have beautiful roads just as they now have beautiful homes. But I ask you, who is being benefited because the Manoa people decided to have their roads built under this law? You. Some of you are getting $2.50 per day up there. Because of the working of this law you are enabled to buy food and clothing for your wives and children instead of you loafing on the streets. With these improvements under this law in various parts of the city, there will be plenty of work and you will be the ones who will have to do that work, and you will benefit. And yet the Democrats tell you that the law is bad, bad because the Republicans are responsible for it. Sure we are responsible for it and you are getting the money. If they call that bad I should like to know what they call good. That is always the Democratic way—to have you walk the streets and starve. The Republican way is to have plenty of work so that you may earn money."

He followed this up with a plea to vote for the bond issue so that more work may be provided, and at the same time the proper improvements may be inaugurated by the city and county. It was by far the best talk of the evening and Achi was roundly applauded as he made his telling points.

Unanimous Support Deserved
William Crawford referred to the record of the various candidates in the legislature and the board of supervisors and the achievements of the Republican party. He urged that the candidates of the party should receive the unanimous support of the voters so that the excellent party pledges may be carried out. He assailed the knickers in the party as "traitors to the cause"—as "worse than our opponents, the Democrats, for they at least are gentlemen." And he ended up with an eloquent appeal to "vote the straight Republican ticket."

Makaoe Amama received a hearty reception when he referred to his record on the board of supervisors. He attributed this success to the fact that there was team work there among the Republicans and that the party had progressive ideas and was always identified with success. He urged his hearers to identify themselves with the party of achievement and success and to vote for a straight Republican ticket.

Makes Odd Comparison
Sylvester Correa demonstrated that he had not lost his popularity. His reference to the candidates of the party as good men, tried and true, likening them to a ripe breadfruit, caught on with the crowd. His appeal to the women to use their silent influence to have their husbands vote the straight Republican ticket was a masterpiece. "The Republican party has gone on record to grant you suffrage, and it shall be my earnest effort to carry this plank to a successful conclusion. I hope that the next time I appear before you to solicit your votes that I may have the pleasure of receiving all your votes, my lady

PASSENGERS ARRIVED

Per T. K. K. steamer Siberia Maru today from Yokohama: For Honolulu—Mrs. G. J. Augur, N. Caum, Mrs. F. Caum, F. Furuno, Mrs. F. Furuno, Judge W. A. Hawkins, C. Hakoda, Mrs. C. Hakoda, H. Nakami, T. Maki, H. Miyake, H. T. Osborn, K. Sasaki, T. Suyeda, E. Yokoyama, N. Yamamoto.

friends, as well as those of my men friends," he concluded.

Ell Crawford impressed his hearers with the importance of electing Republicans because of the manifold adjustments which are bound to come up at the next session of matters between the city and county and the territory. He explained in detail the lack of funds on the part of the county, facts which his familiarity with the auditing system have impressed him as being detrimental to county government. His concrete presentation of fact after fact was an education to the electorate.

New Song is Sung

"Bob" Shingle was unable to be present, but that did not prevent the music boys from singing the new song dedicated to "Pili Hale," the "Gladiators of Hawaii." Achi was called upon to respond for "Pili Hale" and Kuhio. He referred to "Pili Hale's" fine record as a financier, "the man who rid the county forever of the 'pila alulu'—discounted warrants." He argued that it is necessary to have a financier of Shingle's caliber in the senate because of the complicated financial system which is carried on, and that his familiarity with the needs of the city and county will be the greatest asset which the city and county would have in the adjustments of the burdens between the city and county and the territory.

Achi's remarks on the career of the prince, the achievements of the Republican party through his efforts brought forth prolonged applause and when he referred to F. M. Hatch's approval of the work Kuhio has done for Hawaii, he was received with the wildest enthusiasm. The music boys swung off in one of the old campaign songs and the meeting ended with the best of wishes for the success of the party at the polls.

JAPANESE WILL MAKE HOME WITH BRYAN'S FAMILY IN LINCOLN

Ex-Secretary of State Bryan has brought out many good Japanese students, one of whom is amongst the best writers in Japan today—Bryan Yamashita—who was with Bryan for a number of years and received his education in his home and at the University of Nebraska. Among the passengers on the Siberia Maru this morning was H. Kano, son of Count K. Kano of the Japanese diet, who has just graduated from the University of Tokyo and is on his way to America to receive further education there. He is invited by Bryan and will stay in his home as a member of the family while in the United States.
